

PROGRAM GRANT APPLICATION OVERVIEW

Thank you for your interest in applying for a program grant from Impact Austin.

Program grant applications can only be submitted by organizations that previously submitted a Letter of Inquiry to Impact Austin and were subsequently invited by Impact Austin to provide more detailed information on their proposed project or program.

For those organizations who wish to see what will be covered in the Impact Austin Program Grant Application Form, the attached document provides an overview of the questions that are asked and the types of information you will be expected to provide. You can use this to assess your readiness to participate in Impact Austin's grant application process and to begin collecting information should you anticipate receiving an invitation.

If you have not been invited by Impact Austin to complete a Grant Application but would like to be considered in the future, please submit your contact information to grants@impactaustin.org and we will add you to our mailing list for next year.

For a complete description of our grant guidelines and process, please review the document "Program Grant Guidelines" which is available on our website at www.impactaustin.org.

Impact Austin Grant Application Overview The following summarizes the list of information that will be included on the Impact Austin Program Grant Application Form.
